HEAVY PROHIBITION TRIAL DOCKET

Seventy-Seven Whiskey Cases Set For Trial in Circuit Court, Commencing Monday, June 22.

What is anticipated to be one of the "wettest" terms of the Circuit Court ever held in Houston county is scheduled to start in the court house, Monday, June 22, at which term seventy-seven cases charging violations of the prohibition laws are on the docket for trial. Judge H. A. Pearce will preside.

Outside of the prohibition cases there are a number charging various misdemeanors which will be called for trial during the several weeks of court.

The docket for the first day of court, Monday, June 22, is made up entirely of cases in which the defendants are charged with violating the prohibition laws, and there are two such cases against each defendant. The defendants are Gus Stephens, Mack Shivers, King Richards, Will Griffin, G. T. Porter, A. Mr. Stephens and Charlie Trainwine.

DR. H. W. SEARS

The Alkahost presents a certain success when it includes Dr. Sears on its Chautauqua program. Dr. Sears, who is popularly known as "Taffy Sears," has been under Alkahost direction before. There is no more popular humorist lecturer before the public. His return dates are numerous. The people are always glad to hear him, for he never grows old. He is inimitable and any chautauqua program is richer when he is included. His lectures sparkle with wit, his word pictures are beautiful, his logic sound, his eloquence soul-stirring. You have not heard the best until you have heard him. The memory of his visit will linger. "More Taffy and Less Epitaph" is a good subject. The lecture is even better. "The 'Op-posing Day' of Chautauqua" will be richer because of Sears.

ROOSEVELT-WILLIARD MARRIAGE IN SPAIN TODAY

Madrid, Spain, June 11.—The religious ceremony uniting Kermit Roosevelt and Miss Belle Willard was performed at noon by Doctor Samuel Watson of the American Episcopal Church of Paris. The bride wore white satin and tulle. Colonel Roosevelt was the most conspicuous person at the wedding. He has endeared himself to Spaniards by his geniality.

In the presence of a brilliant throng, with the uniforms of diplomats and army and navy officers forming an attractive contrast with the elaborate gowns and jewels of the women, Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, daughter of Mr. Joseph E. Willard, the American Ambassador to Spain and Mrs. Willard, today became the wife of Kermit Roosevelt by a religious ceremony at the chapel of the British Embassy.

Madrid was much interested in today's ceremonies and crowds thronged the streets through which the carriages with the bridal party passed. Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, father of the bridegroom, was a center of interest. The favor which King Alfonso and Queen Victoria have showered so liberally on the young couple was mirrored apparently in the sentiments of the multitude.

There was activity about the American Embassy at an early hour today. As the hour of noon approached automobiles and gala carriages drew up at the Ambassador's house. A dense mass of people thronged the nearby streets when the occupants of the carriages took their places.

Prominent in the procession at the church door was the highly decorated court equipage which brought the dignitary who served as the representative of the Spanish monarch at the wedding.

The chapel, the scene of the wedding, is in a pavilion which is only one of several buildings in the extensive embassy grounds.

Promptly on the stroke of high noon the bride entered the chapel leaning on the arm of her father. She wore a dress of ivory satin and tulle. There was a court train of considerable length. Her veil was of tulle and lace and her orange blossoms were also intervened with rare lace.

Following her came the maid of honor, Miss Mary Elizabeth Willard the sister of the bride. She wore white satin with a tunic of exquisite pale blue tulle.

The bridesmaids were clad in dresses of white tulle, with tunics. They were Her Serene Highness, the Princess of Thurn and Taxis; Miss Katherine Page, daughter of Walter Hines Page, American Ambassador in London; Mademoiselle Gilone de Veneux de Tillieres and Miss Virginia Christian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Christian, of Richmond, Va. They carried bouquets of yellow orchids and wore lace with touches of yellow ribbons tied under the chin.

Many remarked the beauty of the bride. She was pretty with a piquant charm of features. Her clear blond complexion was heightened a trifle by the excitement of the occasion and she smiled slightly as she saw her tall bridegroom approaching to meet her at the altar.

PUSHING TOLLS BILL FOR VOTE IN SENATE TONIGHT

Washington, June 11.—Majority Leader Kern decided to push the tolls bill to a vote in the Senate tonight unless senators yet unheard from insist on making set speeches. Will hold night session if necessary, but there is still a chance that the opposition may delay the vote until tomorrow. The measure is expected to have a majority of twelve.

Claim Cop Allowed Prisoner to Escape

Charged with allowing a prisoner to escape, Wyatt Hart, formerly the town marshal of Ardilla, will be tried in the Circuit Court, the case being set for trial June 21. Hart was indicted by the grand jury that met a few months ago.

It is claimed that a man, whose name could not be learned, robbed an old Confederate soldier in Georgia, securing about $60 and escaping to Alabama. Upon being advised by telephone from another town to arrest the man, who had gone to Ardilla, it is charged that the then Ardilla officer locked the fugitive up, but let him escape. It is charged that Hart obtained money for letting the man get away.

Don't forget that an Alabama boy has the record for the most corn grown on an acre.

Mr. Roosevelt was dressed in conventional garb.

The Rev. Dr. Samuel N. Watson, pastor of the American Protestant Episcopal church, was used. Both aided. He was assisted by the Rev. Herbert Brown, chaplain of the British Embassy in Madrid.

The full service of the Protestant Episcopal church, was used. His parties made their replies to the questions of the clergyman in a clear, firm voice, which could be heard in every part of the room.

At the close of the ceremony the bride and bridegroom walked slowly down the aisle, followed by the members of the bridal party. All took carriages and automobiles for the Willard home. There was a scene of congratulation. The father of the bridegroom was a center of attraction almost as great as the newly married couple.

An elaborate wedding breakfast was served. More than a thousand guests attended the reception. Among those present was almost everybody of official importance in the life of the Spanish capital. There were members of the diplomatic corps representing every nation, a large contingent of Spanish grandees and their wives, and many prominent Americans who had come to Madrid especially for the wedding. An orchestra played in a side room and there was dancing for the younger folk.

It is understood here that Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt will leave soon for Sao Paulo, Brazil, where Mr. Roosevelt for some time has been engaged in engineering. He left his business there to accompany the Roosevelt-Rondon exploring expedition through the wilds of the interior of South America.

DOTHAN BANKER IN CHATTANOOGA

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 11.—Bankers representing three hundred and seventy-four national banks comprising the sixth regional reserve district gathered at the Hotel Patten this morning to nominate Class A and Class B directors for the Atlanta reserve bank.

Prominent among the candidates mentioned are G. H. Malone of Dothan, Ala., and T. R. Preston of Chattanooga. There is some opposition to the convention method of nominating directors. All the Tennessee banks are pledged to Whitford Cole for Class A.

LOCKER CLUBS ILLEGAL SAYS TENNESSEE JUDGE

Memphis, Tenn., June 11.—Chancellor Francis Forester today ruled that under the present Tennessee liquor laws it is illegal to conduct clubs and furnish liquor in any form to members. The decision was in a test case brought by managers of leading hotels, who refused to surrender their government liquor licenses on the grounds that it was necessary to hold them while conducting locker clubs.

The decision now lays operators of hotels open for indictment by a grand jury, and, if upheld by the State Supreme Court means an end to all so-called locker clubs in the State.

CALLERS WAIT WHILE WILSON GREETED INVALID

Washington, June 11.—President Wilson kept a long line of callers waiting while he left his private office to shake hands with John W. Kern, Jr., a son of Senator Kern. The boy has infantile paralysis and went to the White House on crutches.

MEDIATION CRISIS IS PASSED

Mediation Headquarters, Niagara Falls, June 11.—A Constitutional list is to be selected for provisional president of Mexico. The intention of Carranza to run for the presidency will be approved. Huerta's political and military organization will be gradually wiped out. These facts stand out clearly today, first one admitted by one of the mediators, who declared there is no other solution possible.

Huerta delegates, this mediator declared, are willing to consent to the plan on provision that the man selected be appointed foreign minister by Huerta, the dictator then to resign and be succeeded by the foreign minister according to law. This would lend dignity to Huerta's retirement.

It is admitted the crisis is passed. Action was taken without knowing the contents of Carranza's note which has not arrived. The man for provisional president has not yet been selected.

KILLED BY IMPURE FOOD.

Paris, Ky., June 11.—Two children are dead, another is believed to be dying and two other persons are seriously ill here as a result of poisoning, believed by doctors to have been caused by eating impure food.

MORE COUNTIES COMPLAINING

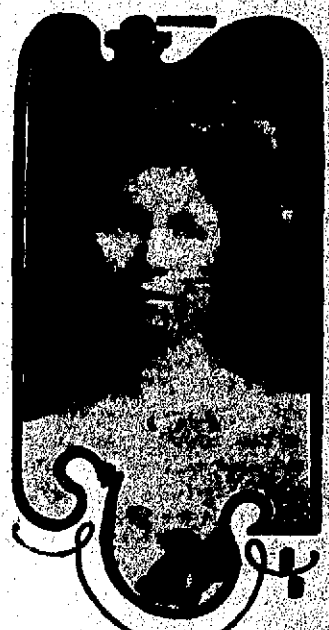

W. O. Malkey, Governor Will Be Given Hearing by House Executive Committee.

The grievance of W. O. Malkey, of Geneva, whose name was left on the ticket in this county as an applicant for the short term in the United States Congress from the Third Congressional District, will come up before the State Executive Committee for action. Members of the State Executive Committee from Houston county are George H. Malone and Ernest H. Hill.

Chief Clerk W. U. Acree, acting for Probate Judge A. C. Crawford who is away on a vacation, had a long distance telephone conversation yesterday with a member of the printing firm in Montgomery which printed the refused tickets. Mr. Acree says he was informed that the printers will comply with the instructions of the probate judge of this county in the matter, but asks that nothing be done until the State Committee takes some position.

That three or four more counties in the Third Congressional District have also complained against the tickets which contained only the name of John J. Spight, was the message the printer conveyed to Mr. Acree.

MYRI. HAMMIS MACDERMID, DRAMATIC SOPRANO

"Myri Hammis MacDermid is today recognized as standing in the very front ranks of the really great singers of America. This notable position has not been gained at a single bound, but is the result of years of careful and conscientious work, each succeeding season marking a steady advance in public favor, until now she is equated in the great heart of music-loving America—loved for her two-fold charm: the beauty of her personality and the all but matchless quality of her voice. In the field of Recital and Concert as well as in her extensive repertoire of standard Oratorios and other musical works, Madam MacDermid is well qualified for any musical event of recognized standing."

We quote the above from Dr. Spillman Riggs, of Chicago and to his endorsement we most heartily add that of the Atlanta. Madam MacDermid is truly a great dramatic soprano, and you will enjoy her.

ONLY WHEN SETTLED NIGHT.

The press of this district seems to think that the congressional committee has no right to nominate a candidate for congress over the protest of Mulkey of Geneva and he has a perfect right to make the race—Union Springs Breeze.

Nothing is settled till it is settled right. The committee evidently thought it had the right. But the people of the district didn't believe the committee had this right. As a way of registering their protest, the committee's nominee, J. J. Speight, is going to be defeated. And Speight is a victim of circumstances. He had nothing to do with it, and of course was thankful for the honor thus conferred.

ON LET THE PEOPLE SAY.

The following bright bit is from the Eufaula Daily Citizen. Read well:

"The Hon. W. O. Mulkey of Geneva, is attempting to stir up a little excitement, but he will scarcely attempt to make the race against Speight for the short term unless he is simply anxious for exercise, and the weather is a little hot for a man to take so much trouble getting that."

The paper is loyal to a home man. It wouldn't stand for the committee's action if the fortunate candidate lived elsewhere than Eufaula.

And Mulkey attempting to "stir up a little excitement?"

That's good. No, he isn't "stirring up any excitement." It's the people becoming tired of machine politics. They want to register a complaint against such methods, and it will be done, dear Citizen. Probably Judge Clayton had more to do with the committee reaching its decision than any other one man.

It's funny to The Eagle editor that there should be one single newspaper in Alabama that would stand for such methods.

The Huntsville Mercury-Banner accuses The Eagle of kicking on the nomination because the nominee wasn't named "Hall."

As a come-back on the Mercury-Banner, we would make a small wager. We would agree to write a ringing piece about the good things whiskey has done to our fair land and country, provided the people back the committee up by electing Speight. We made the provision, that in case the people didn't back the committee up, and should elect Mulkey, that the Mercury-Banner is to write a red-hot editorial for prohibition.

As to the Eufaula Citizen, which accuses Mulkey will make the race, we will say this: If he doesn't win there to see, we will promise the Citizen that we will continue to vote for a Barbour county man for as long as we live, as we have done consistently since our first vote. Then if Speight is licked, more than three to one, we would ask the Citizen to vote for a low-end man, where the votes are, hereafter.

There are several thousand voters in this section who may decide after awhile, that we don't have to go to Barbour for an official.

The people of the Wiregrass have been voting for Barbour county candidates since the year one, and down in the lower end is where the votes come from. They don't believe it's necessary to pick 'em from one county any longer.

THE "DAY OF REST" AND HUMAN EFFICIENCY.

The refreshing influence of the weekly "day of rest" on a person subjected to the strenuous routine of a busy life is a feature which he himself can duly appreciate in the effects on his "feelings" and "spirits." The efficiency of the working man, the length of the working day, the interjection of pauses for rest in the schedule of labor for persons of different ages and stations of life—questions of this sort are constantly arising for solution on a scientific basis. Not only in the field of manual labor, but also in the case of the school child, the office boy, the factory girl, the banker and the merchant efficiency is the key note of the theme. Fatigue is the enemy of efficiency; and to detect and compensate for or overcome it, is the duty of those concerned with the promotion of human welfare.

In view of this says The Journal of the American Medical Association it is of more than passing interest, to know that Dr. Martin and some of his associates in the Laboratory of Physiology at the Harvard Medical school, have been making a careful study of the whole question of fatigue and efficiency from a physiological standpoint. A long series of experiments have been made on first year medical students who were following a regular routine of school work during six days of each week. The routine was interrupted weekly by the Sunday recess, an interval occupied variously by the students, but in no case in precisely the manner of the week days. The daily observations made on these persons during several weeks show that at the beginning of the week the nerve reaction tends to be high, that from then until the end of the week there is a fairly continuous decline, and that following the interruption of the routine by the intervention of Sunday, it returns to the original high point.

The decline is interpreted as a cumulative result of general fatigue incident to routine. What is even more significant, however, is the added fact that a pronounced break in the routine,—such as the "day of rest" occasions—may bring about a return of sensitiveness to a high point or, in other words, it restores the nervous tone. Studies continued in this direction should lead to some useful conclusions regarding the maximum of work, with respect to both its duration and type, that should determine the conditions under which the organism of man may be maintained without depletion.

The Union Springs Breeze has always believed that it paid to advertise, and now it knows it. One of Union Springs' citizens lost a fine fountain pen (if there are any) and called at the Breeze office to offer a $5 reward for it. The editor dug down in his pocket and brought out a fountain pen he found the evening before, and it was the lost pen. And the editor didn't require or request the reward. So it's a good idea to go talk over your losses with the newspaper man. He may have come into possession of them.

THE SPOILED CHILD.

New York World.

It was unnecessary for Mr. Roosevelt to make a formal statement asserting that everything is wrong and that "when I return from abroad I shall actively take up the political situation." It is Mr. Roosevelt's ardent conviction that everything must be wrong unless it is done by him or bowed by him.

Mr. Roosevelt is the spoiled child of American politics. He has been flattered and applauded and coddled and doted until he has come to believe that not only the government of the United States but the government of all the separate States is his personal plaything.

The presidency is his favorite toy. The White House in his private property. Every drop of blood in his veins revolts at the thought of anybody else being the chief magistrate of the nation. Like the Turk, he can tolerate no brother near the throne or on the throne. All his instincts of Government are Oriental.

Other presidents after retiring from the White House have usually either given honest support to their successors or refrained from deliberately embarrassing them. Even Andrew Johnson had too fine a sense of the dignity of his former office to assault Grant publicly; but all successors look alike to Mr. Roosevelt. A Progressive Democrat like Mr. Wilson is no less offensive in his eyes than a staid Republican like Mr. Taft. It is not policies or programs or theories of government that arouse Mr. Roosevelt's antagonism. It is the fact that somebody else has a great office that he once held and is determined to recover.

The same benevolent theory of political despotism is spread over the entire country. Governorships and Senatorships in themselves make no appeal to Mr. Roosevelt's personal ambition, but nobody may be a Senator or a Governor who is unacceptable to him. The Rooseveltian attitude is so preposterous that it would be ridiculous if it did not now and then have its very serious side.

The blame, however, does not rest so much upon Mr. Roosevelt as upon the elements of the American people who have so long inflamed his vanity and egotism. Really great men like Washington and Lincoln are not spoiled by adulation but in large doses it is dangerous medicine for smaller men. Mr. Roosevelt's egotism was always abnormal but it has grown enormously on the food that popular folly and popular hysteria have fed to it. A much better balanced man than he might easily have been uprooted by the hero worship of which he has been the object.

It is a pity that Mr. Roosevelt has been so spoiled. He has unusual energy and unusual capacity for public service. His influence, if it were not so wholly selfish, could be a powerful instrument of public good. If he were great enough to trample his own ambition under foot and make himself a disinterested counselor of the American people on men and measures a career of extraordinary public usefulness would be open to him. Instead, he has deliberately chosen to make himself a continuing menace to rational political progress.

After you have the verbal understanding, it is a good idea to write out the contract in duplicate, whether you ever see it again or not. The written evidence, with signature affixed, go a long way in court.

Since Old Charlie Greer has quit the political game he is getting his Marion Standard back to the high standard.

Saved Her Life and Sanity.

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation and congestion, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind. I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my home."—Mrs. Josie HAM, R. We shall always fondly cherish her memory.

Second, That we deeply sympathize with the loved ones and point them upward, where she awaits them.

Third, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, a copy sent to the family, and one to each of the Dothan daily papers for publication.

INTENSE HEAT FOLLOWED BY CLOUDS FORMING

The thermometer at The Eagle office climbed to 110 degrees about 1 o'clock this afternoon, which all admit was climbing some. Fearing that the mercury had gotten inoculated with germs, and was therefore not working properly other instruments were sought. A thermometer at McCallum's Drug Store registered 104 while another in the same building, in close proximity to an electric fan, was 90 degrees. All instruments were in the shade. Regardless of the little differences in the degrees of temperature as shown by the thermometers, it was too hot to be comfortable in Dothan. The intense heat of the early afternoon was followed by clouds forming.

GET THAT "IF" OUT OF YOUR WAY.

Many young people who lack "gumption," "ginger," or whatever you may term it, often reason thusly: "If it had not been for so and so, and such and such a thing, I could have achieved success." The lions in the way of average young person and a successful career are the "ifs" and the "ands" that enter into his daily life and rob him of his vim and courage. They are the breastworks thrown up by the weak and vacillating, which beguile and deceive and which are offered as excuses for many failures. The lions in the way are nothing more than a lack of courage, steadfastness of purpose, and a determination to go to and win.

Young people who lack these qualities need our help. Our life work is to train "young people in the laws and customs of commercial life, develop their latent talents, quicken their perceptions, teach them bookkeeping, shorthand and Typewriting, (Business Law, Grammar, Writing, Arithmetic, Rapid Calculation, Spelling, and the use of Adding Machines, the Mimeograph, Matheraph, Filing, Bookkeeping, etc., are free with these courses) and give them a steadfastness of purpose and enough "gumption" to accomplish it. With such training the lions in the way are mastered and made subservient to the will. We have trained thousands of others who are on the road to success, and we can do the same for you. Will you let us.

THIS KIDNEY REMEDY

A GREAT HEALER

For a number of years I was troubled with my kidneys so serious that part of the time I was unable to work. Tried several remedies, also different physicians with out relief. A sample of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root was left at my house. I commenced to take it and continued it until I had taken several bottles and am now cured. At sixty-two years of age and am able to work every day. I attribute my cure to the use of your Swamp-Root.

My wife was also cured by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. Symptoms were very serious, including hemorrhages, great pain and distress. I commenced giving her Swamp-Root and it was just as healing in her case. We can heartily recommend your Swamp-Root to all kidney sufferers.

"DIXIE CLEANED"

THE VOICE OF CAIN THE VOICE OF THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC

In their parade in Cincinnati the liquor dealers displayed their true spirit when they flaunted in the face of the public that insolent question of the fratricide Cain: "Am I my brother's keeper?" With his hands yet red with his brother's life that murderer, Cain, was called to account for his crime before Almighty God. Did he show signs of sorrow and penitence? O, brother's blood crieth to me from the ground. And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand. . . . A fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth."

These liquor men did in Cincinnati take up their brother's lives, hence and flout it before high heaven and in the face of an outraged civilization. Even more bloody and insolent than Cain they answer their own question thus: "No, if he does not want to be kept."

More bloody than Cain, far more bloody, for Cain slew only one. The earth annually opens her mouth to drink the blood of a hundred thousand from the hand of these liquor men. More bloody, far more golly, for Cain slew his brother in anger. These liquor men deliberately, maliciously, slay every year one hundred thousand for their money. Cain was convicted of murder in the second degree and had his sentence commuted when he begged for mercy. These men are convicted of murder in the first degree, because before the crime and, because still defiant, must suffer extreme penalty: "Thou shalt be cursed from the earth which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood."

They have heard the sentence, the Lord hath spoken it, but, unlike their elder brother who sued for mercy, they have hardened their heart and stiffened their neck defying both God and man. Such is the course of sin—each generation is more perverse than the former. So degenerate, so conscienceless have these latter day brothers of Cain become that they have deliberately so organized that it is a trust the like of which the world has never known, with its tentacles reaching into every organized government of America and, for its own profit, debauching our citizenship and taking a toll of death that is appalling to every thoughtful man. Cain in anger slew his brother; these liquor men slay him for PROFIT.

"AM I MY BROTHER'S KEEPER? NO, IF HE DOES NOT WANT TO BE KEPT."

This is the motto of the liquor men, and they shamelessly display it in their parade in Cincinnati. They drive their brethren to their slaughter house—a hundred thousand and annually—and make profit of flesh, blood, bones, hair and soul. Their only regret is that they cannot copyright the ground and litter crime that escape the slaughtered so that they could "realize" upon them.

"Am I my brother's keeper? NO. I AM MY BROTHER'S SLAYER FOR THE PROFIT THAT'S IN IT." So say the liquor men, and Mr. Henderson in his Troy speech says it is so. Mr. Henderson is right, for profit they "take" a toll of death that is appalling.

ACCOUNT
WHEN YOU MARRY HER

One of the wisest things for both of you to do is to start a savings bank account. A "joint" account, payable to either of you, may be instrumental in avoiding many a domestic dispute as to financial matters. For your first year's expenses decide on a fixed sum, allowing for a surplus for the Savings Bank. Stick to your original resolution and at the beginning of the second year you will have laid the foundation for improving your circumstances and perhaps the beginning of your fortune.

This is a subject which all young couples should take to heart very seriously for there's no limit to spending, and if all that the husband earns is disbursed how can a financial footing ever be secured.

HUMMER
Oh, the summer is now here,
With its roses bright and fair,
And its rippling brooks so clear,
Beneath the silvery moon's glare,
Oh, the birds in the meadow,
Chirp their glad and brave refrain,
On old green hills in splendor,
They hail glad summer again,
Oh, to me, the memories gold,
Faint June's flowers once more,
Ah, if mortal vision befold
What hath my glad heart in store,
Oh, bright summer I wonder,
How far could you hear Love's cry,
Should the mist rise from yonder
And the Shepherd passed you by,
Summer whisper o'er again,
My loving father's tender care,
He sends the sweetest flowers,
The wild flowers and fair,
